STAMFORD
YOUTH
TENNIS ACADEMY

Twenty years ago, the 100 Black Men of Stamford developed a tennis program for underserved children. The Stamford Youth Tennis Academy (SYTA) grew from these roots, and offers a free year-round tennis and academic tutoring program that brings many social and health benefits to children who would not otherwise be exposed to the many life lessons, both on and off the court.

Today, SYTA is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization operating at Shippan Racquet Club in the winter and Cummings Park in the summer. In cooperation with the City of Stamford, Domus Foundation, Boys and Girls Club, Horizons and the USTA Foundation, we reach over 85 children.

Our mission emphasizes education. At every tennis session, we provide tutoring and homework assistance for all ages. In addition, through the USTA Foundation's ACE initiative, children aged 7-9 participate in fun tennis-themed math, reading and writing activities that are aimed at keeping students interested in academics.
